

Questionnaire on Self-Regulation for Older Elementary Students

(completed by the student)

Name: _____ Date: _____

	Never True	Sometimes True	Mostly True	Always True
I cry more often than my classmates
I feel so angry I could scream
I slam doors when I am mad
I have a hard time sitting in my seat
I get easily distracted by my classmates
I have a hard time completing my school work
Other children do not want to play with me
Adults seem angry at me

Note for scoring (would not be visible to the student):
If four or more scores are in the Mostly True or Always True further investigation is warranted.

Teacher Questionnaire on Self-Regulation for Older Elementary Students

Completed by Teacher: _____

Name of Child: _____ Date: _____

	Never True	Sometimes True	Mostly True	Always True
Child cries easily
Child has a short fuse and is easily frustrated
Child is easily upset when things do not go as planned
Child acts impulsively
Child is easily distracted by classmates
Child has a hard time completing school work
Child often gets in trouble for talking out of turn
Child has a hard time seating in his seat

If four or more scores are in the Mostly True or Always True further investigation is warranted.

Teacher Questionnaire on Self-Regulation for Older Elementary Students

Completed by Parent: _____

Name of Child: _____ Date: _____

	Never True	Sometimes True	Mostly True	Always True
Child cries easily
Child has a short fuse and is easily frustrated
Child is easily upset when things do not go as planned
Child acts impulsively
Child is easily distracted by classmates
Child has a hard time completing school work
Child often gets in trouble for talking out of turn
Child has a hard time seating in his seat

If four or more scores are in the Mostly True or Always True further investigation is warranted.

