Parts of a Story

Characters

The people who drive the story forward.
There are primary and secondary characters.

Setting

Where the story takes place. It could be a real place or an imaginary world.

The main problem
the characters face.
There are obstacles
in the path of the characters' goals.

How the conflict gets solved and what happens to the characters at the end of the story.

The points an author wants to make and the underlying message of a story.
The author wants to say something about the world

Metaphor

A symbol for a larger idea. Ex: Godzilla is a metaphor for the nuclear bomb.

